GOVERNOR OF ILLINOIS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 27.—Gov. Len Small, with his record as state treasurer under the fire of Attorney General Brundage, tonight faced le-gal battles in two courts.

Charged with embezzlement of public funds and conspiriacy to defraud the state, he is confronted with a criminal trial in Waukegan. In suits for accounting begun by the attorney general against five former state treasurers and their bondsmen today, the governor is charged with manipulating state loans until he diverted to private channels a million dollars or more belonging to the people.

Lieut. Gov. Fred Sterling faces al-Lieut. Gov. Fred Sterling faces almost identica. charges.

December the month when Governor Small's light for freedom from criminal charges begins, will bring the service of summons in the civil suits on him, Lieutenant Governor Sterling, State Auditor Russell, William Ryan Jr. and E. E. Mitchell ill former treespiers. Summons will use be served next month on the 190 also be served next month on the 130 bondsmen of the former treasurers.

The civil suits against Small, Sterling and Russell, alleging shortage of over $2,000,000 in their treasury accounts, are scheduled to begin in Springfield in January. The suits against Ryan and Mitchell will be beared in Cook county.

against Ryan and shitchen will be heard in Cook county.

They bring the total amount of state interest which Attorney General Brundage said was unaccounted for during the last twelve years, to approximately $2,500,000. Governor Sm. 1 is also defendant in both the Sterling and Russell suits as one of their Londsmen. Verne S. Curtis, co-defendant in the criminal case at Waukegan, is also a defendant
